STAIL COSTINIA

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 29.

DEATH OF A GALLANT SOLDIER,-The an-Jeff. D. VanBenthuysen, of New Orleans, at Woodside, Halifax county, Va., after a short illness, sent a pang of regret through the bosom of every one who knew him. There are many in our city who followed him through the battles of Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania, foremost in the advance, last in retreat, unyielding, undaunted, a maimed but unfliching type of Southern chivalry. His companions in arms of the battle scarred Sixth regiment, Louisiana volunteers, will recall his only words of command in the charge, "Follow me boys!" In the prime of early manhood he has received the stern and inexorable summons. Brave as a lion, tender as a woman, guileless as a child, open as the day, he seemed to his relatives and friends the perfection of Christian manhood, and as such they will shrine him in their memories. From the industries of peace, from the fields of noble use, from the centre of an admiring circle of friends, from the bosom of a young and tender household, with lands outstretched to success, and brow stained only by a battle scar, he has been called away.—N. O. Picayune.

GILMORE, with his Boston Jubilee, is only a feeble imitation of King Solomon, who, it will be remembered, assembled two hundred thousand musicians at the dedication of the temple. The Boston affair is small in numbers compared to this grand chorus of Judea, but then it makes up in "noise and confusion."

Wat ted, in exchange for the Furniture, Walnut, Poplar, Oak, Maple, Birchand Cedar Logs, ie 8-tf OFFICE A' EXANDRIA WATER CO., May 13th, 1872. The unprecedented early commencement of a general and severe drought has excited the apprehension of a short supply of water, and calls for preventive measures on the part of its offi-cers to provide against all unnecessary waste by It is the earnest request of the President and Directors to heads of families that no unneces-sary waste shall be permitted, and that servants and children shall shut off hydrants as soon as possible when used. Especial attention is called to the use of wash-pans and bath-tubs, both fruitful sources of waste. The rules and regulations of the Company, inder its charter, provide fines and penalties for any and all unnecessary waste, and it becomes the imperative duty of the officers, especially under the condition of a scant supply, to enforce these wholesome regulations upon all offenders. A deficiency of this indispensable article to housekeepers induces us to hope that we shall be sustained in our efforts to prevent all waste, while furnishing all parties with a necessary supply for domestic purposes.
